- ★ Wednesday, May 1 is 2 FRQ questions
- ★ Thursday, May 2 is 50 Multiple Choice questions

Organize the course according to the AP Topics/Identify what you do not know/Clarify what you do know

- ★ AP College Board website for APES: <http://bit.ly/APESsite>

- ★ Quick Reference Infographic: <http://bit.ly/APESqr>
 - This infographic is dated but offers some simplistic recap of our course and the main themes

- ★ AP Outline (per NV staff): <http://bit.ly/nvapoutline>
 - This document has the outline provided by the AP and enhanced by NV APES staff to make it more specific. The AP is vague in their review because they want to separate those that can dig deeper from those that conceptually “get it.”
 - Digital outline resource: <http://bit.ly/apoutline>
 - This tool is old and some information is outdated but EnviroLiteracy completed and linked a lot of information to help you clarify this content.
 - Bozeman Science Site: <http://www.bozemanscience.com/ap-environmental-science>
 - This site breaks big concepts into smaller video pieces for easier understanding.
 - Habitable Planet Site: <https://www.learner.org/courses/envsci>
 - This site breaks down this course (or a course similar) in systematic way

- ★ APES textbook narrative by chapter: <http://bit.ly/nvtextnarrative>
 - This tool was created to organize your textbook readings by chapter and align them to the AP Topics. This tool tells more of the narrative of the course so that you can BUILD MEANING of all the content.

- ★ Review Packet produced by a member of National APES Teachers: <http://bit.ly/APpacket>
 - This is thorough and content based. It is one way to prepare your mind that you are preparing.

- ★ Quizlet Vocab Review: <http://bit.ly/wickvocab>

- ★ Free-Response Preparation via AP Site: <http://bit.ly/APESfrqs>
 - This site links past FRQs as well as scoring rubrics and guidelines.
 - FRQ tips & guidelines: <http://bit.ly/nvFRQtips>
 - This document will help you understand the action words and expected responses for the FRQ portion.
